LOT 1330

A Chinese famille rose porcelain 'chicken' cup, mark of Qianlong but later, of 'U' shaped form, the exterior painted with a scene of Jia Chang stamping his left foot to call the chicken amidst rocks and peonies, opposing a lengthy black poetic inscription and two iron red seals, underglaze blue six-character Fanggu seal mark to base, height 6.8cm, diameter 8.1cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1330. The cup is in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. There is some typical light surface scratches and wear to enamels and glaze, but nothing significant. The black text to reverse is slightly faded/rubbed, particularly to the left hand side. All of this is visible in the images on our website.
