Condition Report

70. In original condition. There are three small holes with associated paint loss and denting to the surrounding canvas. The canvas is very fine and there are pin prick size throughout that are only visible when holding it up to the light, although the paint is a little unstable and some areas show signs that the paint may flake soon due to fine craquelure. Some surface dirt throughout. Canvas a little slack on the stretcher and as a result stretcher lines showing through. U.V. examination does not highlight anything. Frame with some cracks and small chips to composition.
