

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Thursday, 24th June 2021 / Lot 2450

LOT 2450

An interesting 19th century Javanese kris dagger with watered steel blade, blade length 29cm, the finely carved hilt in the form of Jawa Demam, its wooden scabbard detailed in ink 'This kriss was acquired by Froome Talfourd, Colonel, whilst on service on HMS Ariadne Capt Marryat the celebrated novelist 1831 - and was presented to Duncan Milligan in 1881', together with related label.

Estimate: £60 - £90

Condition Report

2450. The blade is quite rusty and pitted but otherwise condition of kris is ok. The scabbard is missing its top section and is cracked. Please see the online images for details of damage and loss.

Created: Tue, 15th June 2021 16:20