

Militaria, Medals and Awards / Thursday, 24th June 2021 / Lot 2475

LOT 2475

An historically important mid-19th century dress uniform, formerly belonging to the Right Honourable Thomas Gabriel, Lord Mayor of London 1866-1867, the jacket embellished with silver plated buttons and epaulettes, detailed 'Domine dirige nos' with the City of London crest, together with an admission ticket for a Banquet at Guildhall on Friday, November 9th, 1866, and a sword belt suspender, all contained within a black-painted tin storage box (some faults, moth damage etc).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Additional Information

2475. Very approximate measurements:

Trouser 42 inch waist

Tunic 46 inch chest

Tunic 18 inch collar

Sleeve length 25 inch

Created: Tue, 15th June 2021 16:26