Condition Report

Overall age toning to paper, a few areas appear a little bleached due to previous restoration. Some light foxing throughout. Four closed repaired tears: one above the urn on the right, one to the top edge above the central arch, another emanating from the statue on the right and another from the bottom edge below the soldier. Backing does not appear to be archival. Frame with some minor scuffs and chips to composition. This work has not been examined out of the frame.
