

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 24th June 2021 / Lot 2615

LOT 2615

A Victorian coromandel Tunbridge ware scent bottle box by Edmund Nye, the hinged lid with a panel of cube-effect wood specimens, the sides with two bands of geometric inlay, the interior fitted with two cut glass bottles, the underside bearing paper maker's label, width 14.2cm (lacking one bottle).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

2615. Very minor hairline cracks to veneer on lower area of both side panels, but otherwise generally in good order.

Created: Mon, 21st June 2021 14:59