Condition Report

618. Lava cameos | the settings of the lava cameos are base metal that may have been gilded in the past. Some of the connecting links are replacements. The cameos are generally fairly crudely carved. The third cameo from the tongue end of the bracelet is chipped. The second cameo from the tongue end of the bracelet has an old chip. Abalone shell bracelet | is a bit matted to the surface, otherwise in good condition. Buttons | the base metal fittings to the backs of the buttons have mostly lost their gilding. The case is rather damaged, probably by water, particularly to the silk within the lid. One hinge is missing.
