

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 30th June 2021 / Lot 364

LOT 364

A set of six Victorian silver King's pattern teaspoons, London 1894 by Josiah Williams & Co, a set of twelve silver cocktail sticks with cockerel finials, cased, and a small group of other silver cutlery, total weight 284g, together with a pair of plated berry spoons.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

364. All cocktail sticks in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Case is worn and stained.

The six teaspoons are a little worn particularly to highpoints and a few have slight dents to tips of bowls. Marks are good and clear.

Created: Mon, 28th June 2021 13:06