

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 15th July 2021 / Lot 1170

LOT 1170

A mid-18th century mahogany silent pull quarter repeating bracket clock timepiece, the eight day single fusee movement striking quarters on two bells on demand, the 7-inch brass breakarch dial with engraved silvered centre, date aperture and chapter ring with Roman hour numerals and outer Arabic minutes, cornered with cast and pierced gilt scroll spandrels, all beneath a silvered boss to arch, signed 'Jas Green Nantwich', the case with moulded arch pediment and brass carrying handle above glazed front and back doors and glazed oval side panels, on a moulded plinth and bracket feet, height 40cm, together with a later carved wall bracket. Note: James Green of Nantwich is a recorded clockmaker, married in 1740 and died in 1779, when succeeded by daughters and son Thomas Green.

Estimate: £500 - £800

---

Condition Report

1170. The movement is working but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

The top of the arch case has some damage. The moulding above the door has been repaired. Repair to the bottom door hinge.

The clock came from a local vendor and it has been in the family for a number of years.

Created: Wed, 7th July 2021 15:54