

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 15th July 2021 / Lot 1125

LOT 1125

A late 19th century French bronze and porcelain mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the backplate stamped with Japy Frères maker's mark and 'HP a Co', the porcelain dial painted with iron red and black Arabic hour roundels on a blue chapter ring, reserved against a burgundy ground, all embellished in gilt foliate scrolls, the Gothic Revival style case with cast and pierced decoration, on scroll legs and integral breakfront stand, height 47cm, with pendulum and winding key.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1125. The case is very dirty and has some wear, would certainly benefit from a clean, otherwise case generally in good order with no significant damage or repairs. Porcelain panels appear to all be intact, but some wear to gilt and decoration.

The clock does not wind and does not run.

Created: Tue, 13th July 2021 12:59