

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 22nd July 2021 / Lot 2517

LOT 2517

A mid-19th century Swiss rosewood cased music box, probably made by LeCoultre for Behrens Blumberg, the bedplate and movement stamped 'BB', the key wind movement playing four airs on a 20cm cylinder, the case with boxwood stringing, width 35cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

2517. Currently in working order, with no teeth or tips missing from comb. Dirt and staining to movement. Lacking original tune sheet. Small strip of stringing missing on lid. Area of lifting veneer on front panel, a few other small chips around edges and some historic woodworm to rear panel.

Created: Wed, 14th July 2021 11:13