LOT 1583

A Wedgwood dark blue jasper dip two-handled vase, early to mid-20th century, of tapered ovoid shape, sprigged with classical figures and emblems, impressed marks to base, height 25cm, together with six other pieces of jasperware, including a plate-mounted biscuit barrel and cover (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1583. The two-handled vase is in generally good condition with no chips, cracks or restoration. It is a bit dusty and dirty and would benefit from a clean. Some typical minor scratches and scuffs. White ornamentation is good. Foot is a little loose where screw and nut need tightening.

Biscuit barrel - ok, but plate is worn.

Jug in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Small jug in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical scratches to interior glaze.

Cylindrical jar - lacking cover and minor chips to rim.

2 boxes in good condition.
