

Glassware / Thursday, 29th July 2021 / Lot 1745

LOT 1745

A large Bohemian cranberry flashed, engraved and cut glass casket, 19th century, of rectangular form with rounded edges, the gilt metal mounted hinged lid decorated with a stag and doe in a woodland setting within geometric framing, the sides with four panels depicting a hound, a running stag, a running doe and birds, the base with a chequer cut design, length 27cm, depth 20cm, height 14.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

1745. The casket is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs, no cracks. Few very minor nicks/chips to edges of base, but nothing of any significance. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Metalwork is a bit dirty and worn, but otherwise ok. Lock plate is intact, but no key.

Created: Mon, 26th July 2021 16:33