

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 4th August 2021 / Lot 410

LOT 410

An early 20th century .935 silver and enamel miniature carriage timepiece, the circular dial inscribed 'The Webb C. Ball & Co Cleveland', the jewelled movement similarly signed, the rectangular case with pink enamelled decoration, swing handle surmount and bun feet, height 5.5cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

410. The timepiece is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Enamel panels in good order with no chips or restoration, but there are scratches to enamel and silver. Hinge door is good and closes tightly, hinged handle in good order and ball feet all good. The movements winds and adjusts smoothly and it is currently running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Created: Tue, 27th July 2021 10:46