

Glassware / Thursday, 29th July 2021 / Lot 1716

LOT 1716

A double series opaque twist wine glass, late 18th century, the rounded bowl faintly engraved with a putto holding a rose, the plain stem with four spiral threads outside gauze, on a conical foot, height 14cm (chips to foot), together with a small group of other glassware, including a pair of decanters and stoppers, height 26cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1716. 2 decanters - no significant damage, but numerous chips to highpoints of cutting on the bodies and stoppers. Stopper terminals also chipped.

Wine glasses - two chips to footrim and scratches to bowl.

Rinser - good condition.

Pale green glass - scratches and surface wear.

Created: Wed, 28th July 2021 16:25