LOT 504

A ruby, diamond and cultured pearl brooch, designed as a winged insect, width 3.2cm, with an associated case.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

504. The brooch is a modern production of a late Victorian design. There is slight variation of colour to the rubies. The diamonds are showing some fluorescence. There is slight variation of cut to the diamonds, which are generally modern cuts. The diamonds look to be more white than translucent.
