

Jewellery / Wednesday, 4th August 2021 / Lot 635

LOT 635

An early 19th century gold cased base metal cornelian pendant fob seal, engraved with a shield, a crest and a motto, the mount with floral and scallop decoration, height 3.3cm, with the original case.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

635. Seal - cornelian in good condition with some very minor surface wear. Overall there is some heavy wear and loss to the gilding, particularly to the underside of the handle and to the high points on the foliate scroll decoration. A few small dents and scratches, to the handle in particular. Surmount potentially repaired in the past.

Case - interior is worn in places. Hinge in working order. Exterior with some heavy scuffs and general wear.

Created: Fri, 30th July 2021 15:10