Condition Report

604. Smoky quartz ring - general wear to the facet edges which is having an impact on the overall lustre of the stone. A few light scratches to the table.

Hematite ring - few small nicks to the cameo. Couple of small dents to shank, with some minor thinning at the back.

Pale blue gem ring - large chip to the girdle of the stone, with a few small nicks to the facet edges, otherwise distorted shank.

Red gem cluster ring - two red gems lacking. The gems are fairly heavily rubbed to the facet edges and one is chipped. General wear to shank.
