LOT 401

A set of six George VI silver and enamelled teaspoons, each bowl interior and finial with blue and turquoise enamel decoration, Birmingham 1950 by Haseler & Restall, weight 63.4g, length of teaspoon 10cm, cased.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

401. One of the enamel bowls has a tiny chip to the edge where it meets the stem, this is not obviously noticeable and is very minor.

Otherwise all in good condition with only typical minor surface scratches, no significant wear. Good clear hallmarks.
