

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 26th August 2021 / Lot 1012

LOT 1012

A pair of Chinese turquoise enameled and gilt moulded biscuit porcelain archaistic beaker vases, mark of Qianlong but later Qing dynasty, each of square waisted section, moulded in relief and picked out in gilt with dragon and stiff leaf panels divided by gilt vertical flanges, all reserved against a turquoise and lavender mottled ground, impressed and gilt seal mark of Qianlong to base, height 19.8cm, with carved and pierced hardwood stands. Provenance: purchased at Sotheby's, 16th November 1965, Lot 240.

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

1012. Both in generally good condition.

One has a tiny pin prick sized chip to one corner of rim, otherwise no other apparent chips, cracks or repairs.

The other vase has a hairline crack to one side running vertically down from the rim, approx 4cm in length. Otherwise, no other apparent chips or repairs.

Both have typical light surface scratches and minor wear to gilt.

Wood stands in good order.

Created: Tue, 24th August 2021 13:50