LOT 1286

A Japanese silk embroidered panel, Meiji/Taisho period, finely worked in coloured threads with a group of five pigeons pecking at the ground beside a blossoming branch, against a black ground, 74.5cm x 56.5cm, framed and glazed.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1286. Silkwork in generally good condition with nice vibrant colours and attractively coloured stitching. No apparent damage. Few minor spots of discolouration, but nothing obviously noticeable. Ebonized frame with scuffs, knocks and wear.
