LOT 1321

A pair of Japanese lacquered wood bezique markers, Meiji/Taisho period, gilt lacquered with leafy stems, the hinged ivory tabs inlaid with insects, length 9.1cm, together with a similar bezique marker, length 9.1cm.

Estimate: £140 - £180

Condition Report

1321. All three in generally good condition with only typical wear and surface scratches. Gilt lacquer in good order and all ivory tabs in hinged working order and all inlaid insects present. Few scuffs to ivory tabs and wood and they are a bit dirty so would benefit from a clean.
