LOT 1120

A Chinese celadon glazed hu shaped vase, mark of Yongzheng but early 20th century, the pear form body carved in low relief with stiff leaf and ruyi head bands above lotus and scrolling leafy tendrils, between a pair of moulded elephant mask handles, underglaze blue six-character mark and impressed 'China' to base, height 26.5cm (drilled hole to base).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1120. Drilled hole to base where it was probably fitted as a table lamp, otherwise the rest of the vase is in good condition with no cracks, chips or repairs. The footrim is slightly misshaped so a bit wobbly.
