LOT 530

A diamond double clip brooch, circa 1930s/40s, pierced in a geometric design, mounted with circular and eight cut diamonds, unmarked, width 5cm.

Estimate: £500 - £700

Condition Report

530. The diamonds although attractive white stones have one or two internal inclusions, with one or two being surface reaching. The fitting at the back on one side appears to be slightly bent preventing it from snapping tightly together when presented as one brooch, but the brooch as a whole does sit securely.
