Condition Report

542. 9ct gold rings - the red gem has a few light scratches to the facets, in certain light they can be seen without magnification. The stone also has a couple of small nibbles to the girdle. Emeralds do have a bit of pitting to the facets, though only noticeable under magnification.

Swarovski ring - one or two nibbles to facet edges.

Silver rings - pale pink cabochon has some light surface scuffs/scratches only noticeable under magnification.

All rings, otherwise in generally 'as new' condition.
