LOT 430

A late Victorian plated and glass centrepiece epergne, modelled as three poppy stems supporting a clear glass trumpet vase with engraved foliate decoration beneath a wavy rim, on a naturalistic base, total height 48.5cm (faults to glass).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

430. Glass trumpet has a chip to the base terminal and a slither chip running approx 5cm up the edge of the trumpet - all of this mostly hidden by the plated mounts and could be polished out). The body of the trumpet and the frill rim is in good order.
