

Furniture / Thu, 16th September 2021 / Lot 2137

LOT 2137

A late 19th/early 20th century French kingwood and rosewood gilt metal mounted dressing table, the swing frame mirror above a drawer and slide, raised on cabriole legs, height 165cm, width 100cm, depth 51cm. Provenance: Christie's European Furniture, Works of Art, Tapestries and Carpets, 12 September 2006, Lot 268.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2137. General overall appearance and condition is good, with some slight sun fading to rear edges of top and top edges of mirror. There are two small pieces of veneer missing on left side edge of frieze, as well as a small area of lifting veneer. Otherwise a few scuffs and scratches.

Created: Wed, 15th February 2023 17:08