LOT 2574

An early 20th century mahogany cased Algraphone salon gramophone by Graham, fitted with a Sonat sound box, height 114cm, width 54cm, together with a small selection of 78rpm records.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2574. The case has some overall surface scratches, particularly to the top. The front doors appear to be lacking some border moulding around the handles. Otherwise in reasonable, good working order. There is a winding handle with the lot.
