LOT 2536

A collection of mainly 19th century copper and brass ware, including two Benham & Froud jelly moulds, numbered '376' and '341', other jelly moulds, a kettle and two chestnut roasters.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2536. No. 341 has two small lead repairs to seam.

No. 376 has some overall lead repairs to edges and corners of mould, as well as a few dents overall.

No. 99 has overall minor dents and is a little misshapen.

The two moulds marked 'CM' have some overall minor surface dents.

The other reeded oval jelly mould has a few small holes to edges and some overall minor dents.

The other pieces in the Lot are in reasonable condition with overall surface dents and wear commensurate with their age.
