

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 30th September 2021 / Lot 1235

LOT 1235

A 19th century gilt brass mounted rosewood mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a gong, the silvered circular dial with black Roman hour numerals, the rectangular case with brass line inlaid decoration beneath a reeded brass surmount, on a rectangular plinth and bracket feet, height 29cm, with pendulum and winder.

Estimate: £180 - £240

1235. This clock does not have a handle.

Created: Fri, 24th September 2021 09:47