

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 30th September 2021 / Lot 1210

LOT 1210

A late 19th century French ormolu cased mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the circular enamel dial with blue Roman hour numerals and outer black Arabic minutes, the case with urn surmount above an acanthus moulded arch pediment and four foliate finials, the front with ribbon bow flanked by fruit and flower festoons and foliate scroll supports, on an inverted breakfront base with applied foliate panels and tapered feet, height 59cm, with pendulum and winding key.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1210. The clock is in good clean condition. The movement winds smoothly and it starts to run, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. The strike mechanism is working. Dial is good and clean. Hinged doors are good.

Created: Mon, 27th September 2021 11:05