LOT 1194

A late 19th century French brass cased mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell via an outside countwheel, the embossed circular dial inset with enamel hour plaques with black Roman numerals, the cast case with urn surmount above mask and foliate scrolls, height 33cm, with pendulum and winding key.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1194. The case is in generally good, but dirty, condition so would benefit from a clean. Glass doors are good and hinges are sound. The movement winds smoothly and it start to run, but only for a short time. The striking mechanism appears to be in working order.
