

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thu, 30th September 2021 / Lot 1129

LOT 1129

A William IV silver and later blue enameled keywind open-faced pair cased gentleman's pocket watch, the gilt fusee movement with verge escapement and turned pillars, the backplate detailed 'Jno Anderson London 3544', with scroll pierced and engraved balance cock, the later blue enameled dial with central skull motif framed by Roman numeral and caduceus hour markers, the outer case with later blue enameled back and side panels, both cases London 1835, outer case diameter 5.7cm, together with a twin strand watch chain, fitted with a deer hoof watch key.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1129. The blue enameling and decoration to the dial and case are later additions to the watch, as mentioned in the catalogue description. The condition is good with no damage or repairs to enamel or cases. The watch winds smoothly and runs, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Created: Mon, 27th September 2021 16:43