

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 30th September 2021 / Lot 1248

LOT 1248

A late Victorian pale oak cased Admiral Fitzroy's storm barometer, the ceramic dial with vernier scales and detailed 'Negretti & Zambra... London', the stick case with glazed arch panel above a chamfered trunk with mercury thermometer and moulded rectangular cistern cover, height 102cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1248. The barometer appears to be in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Case with only typical light scuffs, nicks and wear. It appears to be in working order and the mercury looks full in both barometer and thermometer tubes. Both dials adjust as they should.

Created: Tue, 28th September 2021 12:04