

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 30th September 2021 / Lot 1243

LOT 1243

A late Victorian pale oak Admiral Fitzroy's storm stick barometer, the ceramic dial with vernier scales and inscribed 'Negretti & Zambra... London', the mercury thermometer with similarly signed ceramic dial, the case with dome top and glazed panel above a moulded rectangular cistern cover, height 102.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1243. In generally good, complete, original condition. Typical light surface scratches, nicks and scuffs, but no significant damage or repairs. Both pottery dial have cracks. All mercury appears present to both barometer and thermometer tubes. Winding button is present and adjusts. Glass in good order

Created: Tue, 28th September 2021 16:05