

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Thu, 14th October 2021 / Lot 2360

LOT 2360

A George IV 1822 pattern infantry officer's sword with pipe-back blade by Pitter & Fox, Bedford St, Covent Garden, London, blade length 83cm, gilt brass gothic style hilt, folding guard and wire-bound fishskin grip, with brass-finish scabbard.

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

2360 - The blade has some slight surface rust near the hilt but is otherwise in reasonable order. There is surface wear and some patches of verdigris. The scabbard has some scuffs, scrapes and a few dents.

Created: Mon, 11th October 2021 12:55