

Silver and Plate / Wed, 3rd November 2021 / Lot 449

LOT 449

A rare Victorian silver novelty Mr Punch mustard pot, finely modelled sitting cross-legged with pipe and goblet, his crown shaped hat forming the hinged cover, fitted with original feather handled spoon, London 1870 by Robert Hennell, stamped registration lozenge to underside, total weight excluding gilt metal liner 240.4g, height 10cm.

Estimate: £3,000 - £5,000

---

Condition Report

449. The mustard is in good clean condition with no significant damage or repairs. Only very minor surface scratches and wear, but again nothing significant. Hinge is slightly wobbly, but cover closes nice and tightly. Cylindrical gilt metal inner liner is a very good tight fit. The spoon in similarly good order. Hallmarks are good, clear and matching.

Provenance: entered from a South of England private deceased estate and has been in the their collection for 50 years or more.

Created: Wed, 27th October 2021 15:49