LOT 400

An early 19th century Sicilian silver sugar bowl and cover, mark of Catania, the half reeded urn shaped body flanked by a pair of lion mask and loose beaded ring handles, raised on four mermaid supports and a shaped square base with ball feet, the domed cover with pine cone and leaf finial, town mark and 'SFC' assay master's mark to base, weight 632.8g, height 19.5cm.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

400. Generally in good condition with typical surface scratches and wear, but no significant damage. There is a small lead repair to one side of the body with some small dents. The rest of the body is generally good with only minor dents. Rim of the cover has some dents and misshaping to rim, but fits tightly onto the body.

Supports, handles and base in good order with only typical minor misshaping to edge of base. Ball feet have holes to underside.

Marks are rubbed to base and another mark to inner rim of cover.
