LOT 779

An 18ct gold and diamond brooch in an abstract design, mounted with a row of three circular cut diamonds, detailed '750', weight 10.6g, width 3.2cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

779. Overall in good condition. Pin and clasp in good order. The diamonds are bright white stones and also appear to be fairly clear internally. There are a couple of areas of dirt, one green in appearance and another orange appearance. These look like they would be removed if the piece was professionally cleaned.
