

Jewellery / Wed, 3rd November 2021 / Lot 510

LOT 510

A Victorian gold and silver set, ruby and diamond three stone ring, circa 1850, mounted with the cushion cut ruby between two cushion cut diamonds with foliate pierced shoulders, the underside glazed with a locket compartment, weight 2.6g, ring size approx J, with an associated case.

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

510 - Ruby - abraded to facet edges.

One diamond has a flat chip to one side of the table. Both diamonds are fairly included stones.

Setting heavily tarnished. Glazed compartment in good condition. In generally good condition overall, with fairly crisp cast/engraved decoration.

Created: Fri, 29th October 2021 16:23