

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 12th November 2021 / Lot 2552

LOT 2552

A 16th century Continental copper high-sided dish, possibly Dinant or Nuremberg, worked with a central boss surrounded by leopard heads and foliage, height 10cm, diameter 37cm, together with another 16th century brass alms dish, probably Dinant, bearing 'Cross of Lorraine' stamp to edge, diameter 42cm (faults). Provenance: from the estate of a West Sussex collector.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Additional Information

2552. Weights: Bowl 994g, charger 1295g.

Created: Wed, 3rd November 2021 12:59