

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 11th November 2021 / Lot 1073

LOT 1073

A Chinese famille rose porcelain ginger jar and domed cover, late Qing dynasty, painted with birds amidst peony and rocks, height 25.8cm (drilled to base and cover), together with hardwood stand.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1073. The jar has a drilled hole through the base and the cover has a drilled hole through the top of its dome where the piece has been a table lamp at one time. Otherwise both pieces in good condition with no cracks or repairs. Enamels are bright and vibrant with only typical light surface scratches and wear. Wood stand also has a drilled hole to centre.

Created: Fri, 5th November 2021 10:56