LOT 1176

A Chinese celadon glazed porcelain circular dish, early 20th century, painted with a green dragon and pearl, unmarked, diameter 27.1cm, together with a Chinese wucan style circular dish, mark of Wanli but modern, painted with dragons and phoenixes, diameter 37cm, and a pair of Japanese porcelain dishes, decorated with dragons and vapours on a green ground, diameter 24.2cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1176. Celadon dish - generally good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. There is a faint glaze hairline to the underside of rim (3cm in length) but it does not go through the porcelain and cannot be seen from the other side. Typical minor surface scratches and wear.

Large modern dish - good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Pair of Japanese dishes - both in good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear.
