

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 11th November 2021 / Lot 1153

LOT 1153

A Chinese 'clobbered' blue and white porcelain vase, Kangxi period and later, of square section triple gourd shaped form, painted in underglaze blue with precious objects, flowers and landscapes, later embellished in polychrome enamels and gilt, height 31cm (repaired and other faults).

Estimate: £200 - £400

---

Condition Report

1153. Numerous chips to rim and edges of body, also fritting to edges of body, rim and footrim with some re-touching/restoration to upright edges of body. The body has been broken in half and repaired, approx half way up and covered with brown decoration. Typical wear and scratches.

Created: Mon, 8th November 2021 12:11