LOT 2003

An 18th century Continental walnut draw-leaf dining table, the rectangular top above a carved cushion moulded frieze, raised on multiple reeded supports united by a bracket base with carved scroll feet, height 82cm, unextended length 130cm, extended length 240cm, depth 82cm. Provenance: from the estate of a West Sussex collector.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2003. The table is in generally good overall condition, with only fairly minor surface scuffs, marks, scratches and surface wear commensurate with its age. The top and frieze has some minor surface worm, but nothing serious. Otherwise structurally sound and a really nice colour.
