

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 12th November 2021 / Lot 2513

LOT 2513

A George III mahogany and tulipwood crossbanded tea caddy, the hinged lid and sides with applied and printed oval panels depicting figures, the interior fitted with a pair of Dutch glass caddies and matching bowl, all with silver mounts, hallmarked London 1791 by Thomas Phipps and Edward Robinson, width 34cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2513. Some general minor surface scuffs and marks. A small strip of boxwood missing on rear corner of lid and also a small section missing on base. Slight wear and scuffs to some of the panels. Glass and silver in good order, but with some wear to front edge of interior. There are no hallmarks to caddies, just mark to rim of bowl.

Created: Mon, 8th November 2021 14:37