

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 11th November 2021 / Lot 1316

LOT 1316

Two Chinese ink wash paintings on paper, in the style of Qi Baishi, one depicting shrimps, 62cm x 29.5cm, the other with crabs, 134cm x 33.5cm, together with another Chinese scroll painting (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1316. Shrimps - some minor staining patches to paper, some minor creases and some small dirt spots. Outer mounts in poor condition with tears, rips etc.

Crabs - some discolouration to paper, some horizontal creases and some minor dirt spots. Outer mount has some wear and wooden end has torn away from rest of scroll.

Flower study - generally ok, but some creases to paper and some minor dirt spots.