

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 11th November 2021 / Lot 1054

LOT 1054

A Chinese famille verte enameled biscuit porcelain figure of Guanyin, Kangxi period, modelled kneeling wearing a long voluminous robe and bead necklace whilst grasping a fly whisk in her right hand, height 19cm (minor restoration).

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

1054. Generally fairly good condition, but there is some restoration to her hands and to the top of her headdress. Her black hair also looks to have been re-touched. Typical surface scratches and wear to glaze.

Created: Tue, 9th November 2021 09:50