LOT 1204

A Chinese hardwood and famille rose porcelain two-fold screen, early 20th century, each rectangular porcelain panel painted with figures in a landscape, within hardwood frames, total height 30cm (faults).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1204. Left hand side panel has been broken into 3 pieces so would require restoration. Typical light surface wear to glaze and enamels.

Right hand side panel has also been broken into 3 pieces with an attempt to glue back together. This would also need attention/restoration.

Wood frame in generally good condition with typical wear and scuffs.
