

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1316

LOT 1316

A Burmantofts art pottery bottle vase, circa 1882-1904, covered in a yellow glaze with incised decoration, impressed marks including '824' to base, height 35.5cm, together with a similar Burmantofts vase, covered in a yellow glaze with impressed stylized floral decoration, impressed marks including '358' to base, height 23.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1316. Larger vase - small indented chip near the top rim, a few other nicks to the glaze on the body. Overall heavily crazed. A few scratches to the glaze on one side in particular.

Smaller vase - hairline crack to top rim. Tiny chip to top rim. Overall heavily crazed. A few scratches to the glaze on the neck in particular and to high points.

Created: Tue, 16th November 2021 15:21